Job Description

JOB TITLE: Maths & English Functional Skills Tutor

DEPARTMENT Justice Services

REPORTING TO Education Departmental Senior Manager

CAREER GROUP Delivery

DISCLOSURE LEVEL Prison Security Clearance

MAIN PURPOSE OF THE ROLE:

Our Maths & English Tutor will deliver City & Guilds Functional Skills qualifications in maths and English from Entry 1 to Level 2 to a class size of 12 PCoSO learners. The role will play a key role in supporting prisoners' educational development, tailoring lessons to individual learner needs, and helping them progress towards their long-term employment goals. This position will work with a diverse range of learners, including those with neurodiverse needs, using innovative and engaging resources to ensure that maths is seen as both relevant and functional across the prison.

Responsible for creating individual learning plans, delivering comprehensive lesson plans, and preparing learners for exams, ensuring timely adjustments are made for those with additional needs. This role also requires a focus on promoting reading for pleasure to support those with low literacy skills and fostering a restorative practice approach to learning and development.

KEY RESPONSIBILITIES

- Deliver Functional Skills Maths & English: Plan and deliver engaging lessons in line with City & Guilds qualifications, preparing learners from Entry 1 to Level 2 for their exams and future employment.
- Use of BKSBS Diagnostics and Initial Assessments: Carry out initial assessments and use BKSBS diagnostics to determine each learner's starting point, ensuring their learning plan aligns with their long-term employment goals.
- Individual Learning Plans (ILPs): Develop, review, and adjust Individual Learning Plans for each learner to support their ongoing development, ensuring these plans link directly to employability and rehabilitation goals.
- Detailed Lesson Planning: Prepare, deliver, and regularly review inclusive lesson plans that address group needs and individual barriers, including low literacy, numeracy, and language skills.

- Teach to the Top and Adaptive Learning: Use adaptive learning techniques to engage all learners, teaching to the top level of ability within the group to foster ambition and progression.
- Progress Monitoring and Review: Continually review learner progression to ensure that training continues to meet their identified needs, adjusting teaching methods, and content where necessary.
- Engage and Motivate Learners: Use a variety of motivational strategies to engage both individuals and groups, ensuring high levels of learner retention and participation.
- Curriculum Feedback and Improvement: Actively seek and review feedback from learners and colleagues to continuously improve curriculum content, resources, and teaching methods.
- Digital Learning Resources: Create and integrate digital content and resources into your lessons to make learning more engaging and relevant for prisoners.
- Reading for Pleasure: Encourage reading for pleasure as part of numeracy and literacy development for prisoners with low-level literacy skills, supporting their overall academic and personal growth.
- Administration and Compliance: Complete all necessary administrative tasks, such as registers, enrolment forms, ILPs, progress reviews, Awarding Body documentation, and other tasks in line with external and internal requirements.
- Work with Colleagues: Collaborate with colleagues, learning support practitioners, and prison staff to assist learners with neurodiverse needs, ensuring they receive tailored support, and appropriate reasonable adjustments are in place.
- Timely Exam Bookings and Adjustments: Ensure that learners' expected end dates are met, book exams promptly, and submit requests for reasonable adjustments on time to avoid disadvantaging learners with additional needs.
- Promote Maths & English Across the Prison: Champion the importance of literacy & numeracy across the prison, demonstrating the relevance and functionality of maths and English skills to various aspects of life and work in prison and beyond.
- Restorative Practices: Incorporate restorative practices into your teaching, encouraging learners to take responsibility for their learning journey, reflect on their progress, and resolve any barriers to success.
- Support Employability: Work closely with prison colleagues, such as Careers Information Advice & Guidance, Engagement & Resettlement Facilitators and other departments, to support learners' progression toward qualifications and successful transitions into employment.
